HISTORY OF THE INTERNATIONAL ARMED FORCES NIGHT

The first International Armed Forces Night was organized in 1960 by officers of the 2451st AC&W Squadron RCAF (Aux) under Wing Commander Robert Norwood as a means to further solidify the excellent rapport which had been created with the US Military forces during the Squadron's short history. The basic aim was to expand on the goals of

Due to the CORVID-19 outbreak it has been decided that the Dining-out must be canceled. The Executive Committee will work on the possibility of the event being held in the Fall. If this doesn't work out we will look forward to seeing you on May 7th 2021 at the American Polish Cultural Center, Troy, Michigan. You can monitor our website IAFNC.org for details.
